For each class in which you are currently enrolled, please ask your instructor to evaluate your work in progress by providing a letter or number grade (even if official mid-term grades are not issued) and their signatures as soon as possible. If mid-term grades are not available by the application deadline, please fax or email this report as soon as grades are available. The form must include grades and signatures for all classes in which you are currently enrolled.

TO THE INSTRUCTOR: Admissions committees find it helpful to receive a general indication of how the student is performing in the courses s/he is currently enrolled in. Be sure to sign below.
